- Tips are not mandatory, but have become almost institutionalized in the current tourism industry - in other words, they are expected.
- Tips should be given when and if the service is both very good and appreciated.
- Tips to Hotel Personnel, and Restaurant Staff have already been included in the price of the tour. You are not expected to tip these individuals because service has already been included in the bill. It is customary, however, to leave a few extra coins if the service has been extraordinary.
